DEDICATION

Mr. Robert Avery

At first glance the building of Turners Falls High school looks uninviting and cold but when you enter, the building takes on a warmer tone. If a person turned left after the office you would find a long corridor lined with brick and little else. Near the end of this hall another left will take you into the guidance suite. It is here in this group of small rooms, that students are assisted with their plans for the future. You are met with College brochures, flyers from the Army , Navy, Air Force, Marines, information on technical training, and people who are eager to help.

For over thirty years, one of those people was Mr. Avery. He greeted you with a friendly smile and lead you into his office. If the smile didn't tell you he was genuine, then the walls of his office did. They were covered with photos of students he helped, photos of the track and cross country teams that he coached. You knew you were in the presence of someone who cared. As you spoke with this man you found that he already knew a little something about you and wanted to know more. Most of all, he wanted to help you with your plans for the future.

He would tell you stories of past graduates, where they went, and how they're doing now. "This student is at M.I.T." "This one went to U. Mass." "This one went into the Air Force". "He works here and she is working for this company." "He married this girl. Oh you should have seen them in high school. They have two of the most beautiful children now." Every story that he told anyone could tell that he was proud of them and that he cared.

It is for that reason that this book is dedicated to that man; Our Senior Class Advisor, Coach, and Counselor, Mr. Robert Avery. Although he is now enjoying retirement, he continues to be involved here at the school that he loves so much. The senior class would especially like to thank him for everything that he has helped us to do over the past four years. From helping us at floatmaking, to helping us fundraise for the senior trip, he has helped us with so many things and we thank him.

It's hard to believe that we're seniors already and it's time to write our page in the yearbook. Time really does fly.

We entered TFHS as freshmen excited about high school. We were introduced to block scheduling, which turned out to work for us. We were also, finally, one entire class. Our freshman year Booster Day theme was video games, and we chose to do "Tetris." Our float left much to be desired that year, but it was the first thing we accomplished together. Jon Hall and Liz Girard were our Knight and Lady-in-Waiting.

Sophomore year, we were used to high school life - more confident, and we were definitely more experienced. We proved that by winning float making on Booster Day. The theme was cereals and our class chose to do Fruit Loops. Even though everyone claims we cheated, we worked hard and were proud of our first place float! Our Duke and Duchess were Nick Stevens and Becky Callery.

By Junior year we realized that half of high school was behind us and it was time to start looking to the future. The Booster Day theme was Disney, and our float was "Snow White and the Seven Sports." Though we did not win, we still had a great and spirited float. Kurt Eichorn and Jaclyn Kanash represented us as Prince and Princess. Junior Year we also put on The Prom. We chose to have it at the Yankee Pedlar Inn. Our theme was "Save Tonight," and we gave out keychains, picture frames, and candles as gifts. Prom night was very successful and it was a memorable way to end the year.

Then, so quickly, we were the "Super Seniors," with a busy year ahead of us. The time had come to make decisions about colleges and life after high school. Booster Day arrived and our theme this year was Millennium Milestones; we picked "Technological Advances" as the theme of our float. Ryan Betters and Halissa Delphin represented us as King and Queen. Though Booster Day did not go as planned, we still showed that we were able to pull together as a class and get things done; no matter what. We were very proud of our final float, especially when we claimed first place once again!

Overall, our four years here at TFHS were fun and successful. Graduation grows closer and closer every day. Our experiences here have all been different and unique.

Good luck, classmates, in everything that you pursue. Remember, above all, to do something in life that makes you happy.

(Too bad it's

Wow! The past three years have flown by. We all know, pretty well, who we are and what we're doing here.

On Booster Day our float unfortunately lost; but that leaves us with one more year to create a winner! Our class was represented well by our Prince and Princess: Patrick Lesweng, our exchange student from Germany, and Kim Bruno. We also gave the seniors a wonderful prom at the Wyckoff Country Club.

It seems like only yesterday we were Freshmen and now we're almost Seniors. I hope that everybody's last memories of high school are good ones. Enjoy the ride while it lasts. Good luck....it's almost over! Remember to smile, laugh, and have fun. (And do some work!)

Two down, two more to go. When we return to school in September we will hopefully all be juniors. The SATs, the prom, graduation and college will probably be on our minds.

The past two years have gone by pretty fast, but not fast enough. Our freshmen year float of "Alice in Sports Land" placed 4th. During the Spring Hall Wars Competition we tied the Seniors for 1st place. This years Booster Day theme was Millenium Milestones. Our rendition of "the First Thanksgiving" looked great, but did not place first. Doug Gammon and Courtney Prokopas represented our class as Duke and Dutchess.

I hope you all have a good summer and look forward to seeing you in September.

Class of . . . 2003

This year we started high school as most freshmen do. We weren't really sure what the year, schedules, or people would be like, or how long it would take to adjust. Also, we started not as a Crue, Falcon, or Raven member, but as a whole class. Fortunately, with that step up, we were able to help and be with each other when we lost Nick, who was a friend and a classmate. He will always be remembered and missed, and will always be a member and a part of the class of 2003.

For our Booster Day activities, our Lady in Waiting was Liana Pleasant, and our Knight was Scott Masloski. The float theme this year was millenium milestones. We decided to do "The Founding of America", which mainly included the Liberty Bell and the Statue of Liberty. The floats weren't displayed this year as they usually are , but we brought ours around the school once. We didn't win, but we were proud of our first float that we had made together. Wait until next year, though! Those judges won't see our 1st place float coming, except, of course, down the road during the next parade. This year went by very quickly, and we're excited about the years to come. - Alex Delphin, Class Historian

l Loving Memory of our Classmate and Friend: Nick Pollard

the Class of 2003
are a class
shall be for the next four years of our lives.
rever we will stand next to each other side by side and conquer whatever stands in our paths. From float king, getting through the next big test, to putting each other back on our feet, We are the greatest force t will move each other and the world of Turners Falls High School. The teachers and staff have seen the sses of 2000, 2001 and 2002 but they have not seen the class of 2003. The people in our class, to me, the greatest individuals in the world. Each holding a gift, a spirit, a talent.
nit in which we care for each other, move with each other, cry with each other. If you were to tie a rope und everyone in the freshmen class and tell them to go run a marathon, they would come in first place.
rs may fall, fingers may ache from 4 hours of homework, teachers and coaches might lecture and tell you litely' what you are doing wrong, but still nothing will stand in the way of this freshmen class. It may e time to get around the obstacle but with shoulders to stand on, hands to grasp, everything can get complished.
are the freshmen class!!
to the sky with spirit, up to the moon with love for each other.
will never stop pulling for each other and never stop caring for each other .
rever a piece will be lost in the puzzle of faces of our freshmen class and will never be filled with someone e's. Red; our class color, Yellow; our friendships, our memories, our love, our tears and our smiles.
smiles, tears, his words, the stories and memories he gave us, will not be forgotten. With open hearts, n minds and open arms we will all pull each other through this. When a hero and friend is lost and taken y,a star is added to heaven.

A beautiful baby girl who has grown to be a wonderful, smart young lady who has the whole world at her fingertips.

Keep God in your heart and may all your dreams come true.

Dezi-Rae,

There is no blue sky big enough mountains high enough, or sea deep enough to describe how proud I am of you. From the time you first came to live with me as a confused, quiet little girl, to the beautiful, determined woman who knows what she wants from life, you have made my life so happy. I wish you the very best that life can offer. You'll always be here with me in my heart.

A wise person once said, "Life is a matter of choices, make good choices and you'll make a good life." Your mom and I made a good choice some 19 years ago when we decided to have you. We would encourage you not to be a clone of who we were, but to be yourself and who you were meant to be. We decided that we would teach you all our human virtues and allow you to make your own choices. Whether or not you were in the Honor Society, on a sports team or class president was secondary to us. What was really important was that you would be a wonderful human being. That you were well liked, appreciated and praised by your peers. That you were kind, caring, considerate, loyal, truthful, compassionate and confident yet humble. We wanted you to ask yourself what would be the consequences of my actions or inactions? And, how will my choice effect me, my family, friends and society?

Ryan, you are much wiser than your years. You have matured into a responsible young man filled with virtue and common sense. Now you must stay on the course and continue to make good choices throughout your life. Congratulations and the best of luck for a long life filled with health, happiness and contentment. And always remember, as mom and I always have been, we will always be, here for you!... Don't walk the path, put it in 4-wheel drive and blaze the trail!

Kim

Our beautiful daughter,
We are so proud to be your parents

Since you were born you have been
Such a beautiful part of our family.
Now that you are growing up we can see that
You are a beautiful part of the world
And we are so proud of you.
As we watch you doing things on your own
We know you will find happiness and success
Because we are confident in your ability,
Your self-knowledge and your values.
But if you ever need a boost or just someone to talk to
About difficulties that you might be having.
We are always here to help you,
To understand you, to support you,
And to love you.
Mom and Dad

Thank You For Being My Daughter

Kim,
What can I say to you to let you know
What a special person you've been in my life?
You have always been here for me like a guardian angel...
You've been my best friend, my playmate, my mother,

My helper, my mirror, my teacher, my student,
As well as my beautiful daughter...
It seems that whatever my needs are at the time,
You are exactly what I am needing.

I love so many things about you...
I love your beautiful smile, I love the way you love life
And live every moment to be happy...
I love that you don't make me feel old when I'm with you.

I love that you seem to care what I think about you and your life, and you make me feel that you really do value my opinions,
Most of the time.

I love that you have something in you that makes you so
Charismatic to me and to others,
And that they can see the special person that you truly are.

And I know I must be pretty special myself...
To have been blessed with such a wonderful daughter.
I want to thank you for all of your caring, support,
And love you have given...
And I can only hope to make you as proud of me as I am of you.

But most of all sweet angel child of mine,
I love that you are my daughter
And my friend, and that I have you in my life...

Thanks for being my daughter...
I love you so much.

Delight yourself in Him and He will give you the desires of your heart. -Psalm 37:4

"If you need me...I'll be here. Once in each forever this kind of love appears, so if it takes a lifetime still my path is clear.

If you ever need me...I'll be here.

If you ever need me...I'll be close. You won't have to worry, wonder, or suppose. I will never leave you, I've nowhere to go.

And if you ever need me...I'll be close.

In a world where the odds are against true love I will be more than true enough. You can lay your head down and sleep in my care.

And if you ever need me...I'll be there.

I pray we live long lives filled with years of laughs and tears.

And anytime you need me..I'll be here."

Juan

Mi Rey Juanito,

I remember the day you were born, like it was yesterday. I remember thinking, what a beautiful baby. Someday, he would grow up to be a great young man. Look at you now, a senior in high school. Juan, do you remember Oak Hill School? You were small then, but even then, you had a great smile and a great attitiude. What I'm trying to say is, I'm very proud of you and I will always be here to cheer you on and watch you cross the stages you will cross. You are a diamond in my eyes and I can't wait until everyone else can see that too!

Love you,
Mom

Juan,

We have a special relationship, you and I,
And I want to apologize for a few things...
I'm sorry I couldn't be your real Dad...
I'm sorry I couldn't be there when you were born...
I'm sorry I couldn't be there when you took your first step, or spoke your first words...
I'm sorry I didn't come into your life until you were seven years old...
But, we've had a lot of fun since then, and I'm honored to be the only Dad you've really had. You're a great person with a great smile and a big heart-- you'll do well in life!

Love,
Chris (Dad)

Halissa,

When you were five years old and enthralled with the Wizard of Oz, you visited us and we made ruby slippers. Do you remember? We coated a pair of red shoes with glue, then covered them with red glitter and sequins that had sparkle and shine like real ones. (We were vacuuming up red glitter for weeks after you left.) Now you are about to graduate and leave home. Your dreams of the life ahead of you sparkle and shine like those ruby slippers- and like the ruby slippers in the movie, your dreams can take you anyplace you want to go. Just click your heels and wish for it! Every so often, though, remember "There's no place like home," and bring your sparkle and your shining dreams back to share with us for a while. (we won't even mind vacuuming after you leave.) Love, Aunt Ruth and Uncle Stan

Dear Halissa,
Watching you accomplish your goals has been a delight. Even though a good congratulations note we can't write. Good luck to you in the future, and in college, too. All over Tuners Falls H.S., we'll be missing you.
By the way, Halissa, you knew this was coming: We really love you! Janet, Aaron, Kristen

Dear Halissa,
If you ever think you won't be a teacher: remember, there's a lot of chalk in your blood!
Love, Grandma

Hey Hal!
I'm really proud of you. Keep being determined, fair, just, and true to yourself. Laugh, enjoy life, and remember that "whatever you think or believe, you can do, begin it. Action has power, magic, and Grace in it."
Love ya,
Dad

Hally, Thank you for driving me..oh..everywhere, putting up with me being a great sister. I admire how you can be such a good student, and b involved in so much with time to spare. It's hard to follow. I can barely homework. I will miss you and especially our "food sprees" next year. G luck in college, and I know you can achieve whatever you want. Just d forget to take a break from life once in a while and do something for yours 'cause you're your #1 priority. Have fun now (like I did when I chose a pic to put on this page)! You have so many blackmail pictures of me, that I thou I'd use this one to my advantage.
Love, Alex

Dear Halissa,
I can't keep you home, nor would that be the best thing for you. Let me remind you that you will never be alone, because when you are away, nostalgic, and can't get to a phone, just remember these simple words:
"Did you say something about a cake?"

Aubrey

AUBREY,

True to the meaning of your name, "Blonde Elf Ruler," you have reigned in our hearts for the past eighteen years. From the time you were born, your naturally sweet and sunny disposition has been exceeded only by the caring and sensitivity that you constantly show towards others.

You have blessed us with many smiles, much laughter, more smiles, and even more laughter, and you could not have made us any happier or prouder than we are today. Thank you for the wealth of fond memories from all the experiences we've shared together.

It's so hard to let go, but we know it is our God-given task as parents to give you "roots to grow, and wings to fly." And fly you will, for we know that you have your priorities right, with God in your soul, common sense in your head, and love in your heart.

No matter where those wings take you, we will always be there for you. Follow your dreams and enjoy the journey!

With All Our Love, Mom & Dad

Wow! I cannot believe you are graduating already! It seems like just yesterday I was in your spot--ready to take on the world. Well, let me te you--it is a GREAT experience and if anyone can take it on full force, it's you.

I have watched you grow up before my very eyes. From the shy 7th grader that entered Hackworth's to a beautiful and mature dancer and w man. You are a great role model for many people including myself. Even though you are my younger sister, I have looked to you for guidance in many tough situations. Whether you realize it or not, you have taught me about morals, values and, virtue.

So here you are, at a junction on the road of life. I wish you the best of luck. I look forward to seeing what a bright, beautiful, sensitive, and in lligent person you can become. Thank you for being my best friend and the best younger sister anyone could ask for! I love you.

Congratulations,

Lisa

Dear Aubrey,

It's another "good-bye" in the Waynelovich family, and although right now I say that it's the right time to get out of the house, I know I'll miss you. P.S. Thanks for the upgrade to my new room- hope you enjoy my old one!

On Dec 5, 1981 I was blessed with you
And in my heart I always knew
That you would be the little boy
Who brought to my life so much joy
From hitting yourself and saying, "Mom make him stop"
To the day you hit Scott - right in the chops
The day we took Scott to college my heart strings you did tug
When you looked at him and said, "Brothers gotta hug"
You have grown into such a wonderful young man
And I guess it's time to let go - if I can
Just remember - in this life whatever you do
I will always and forever be here for you

It has been fun watching you grow. How time flies. You are a man of few words. Be a strong leader. I will help you any way I can. As I told Shannon, make sure you help people along the way. Good Luck.

Dear Joey,

As we write this letter to our son, we can't help but remember all the good times we've had with you. The vacations, the long weekends in PA, and the quick trips to Maine for lunch on the water. You have been and always will be the light of our eyes. You have brought your mother and I great joy just by being you. The only thing we ask of you is to be true to yourself and most of all be happy.

All our Love,
Dad and Mom

Dear Joseph,

You are our first grandson. You have always been very special to your Grandmother and I. Remember our camping trip? What fun we had all together. Your Grandmother is watching over you and loves you very much, just as I do. Here's to your future.

All our Love,
PaPa and Grammy

Tabitha Parker

Eighteen now

I stand here in silence beneath my tree
Reminiscing on the years passing so quickly
Reviewing all the past events
The good, and bad, the heaven sent
Standing on the threshold of the arriving adult years
Amid anticipation and yes, some fears
I step forward on the journey of what my road of life holds
Walking with my God as each new day unfolds
Remembering in my heart I hold the key
Of what these future years can bring to me
Looking honestly in my mirror at the end of each day
To see if I have tried my best as I've made my way
Having a song in my heart and a smile on my lips
My journey in life will be a wonderful trip.

For Tabitha,
From a very proud Grandmother,
Veona Towne

Tabitha, you are my favorite Grandaughter
Grandma I'm your only grandaughter!!!

Tabitha,
We are very proud of our little girl and what you have become. God was loving and good to us, to give us such a wonderful daughter. Our dream for you is to stay happy, loving, and most of all true to yourself. God will always guide your hand.
Your Loving Dad and Mom

We're pretty proud of our girl!
Grandpa

Best wishes Bab Ba!
Bobby

Tabitha, may your future hold only good things in store for you.
Love always,
Grandma Parker

Nick Stevens

Dear Nick,

We have the joy and privilege of being your parents. We have never found a day that we did not feel blessed that you were our son, even though there were times we tried each other. We never doubted your kind and gentle soul.

Please know we are always behind you no mater what your choices in life may be. Never sell yourself short; you can do anything. Tomorrow is always a beginning.

Love, Mom and Dad

Ashley

Ashley,

We held our breath through the delivery and we've held our breath ever since. You came into this world with an agenda all your own and our lives would now be filled with many new questions. Shouldn't an infant sleep? How high can you climb? Aren't you dizzy yet? How many monkey costumes do I need to make by Friday? Are you supposed to use just one ski? How many girls can sleep in a twin bed? How many flat tires can you get in a year? Which way to X-Ray? And of course, where are you going now? Through it all you've always kept us laughing. You've had a hard act to follow, but one thing is for sure, you did it with style and grace and more importantly on your terms. Your determination, compassion and humor will carry you through life and many more accomplishments. We are extremely proud of the beautiful, talented young woman you've become. We may have a "princess" but we also have an "angel". We know your future will be nothing short of incredible, just keep the "Faith".

Love, Mom and Dad

It's your time to celebrate yourself...

To think about where you are and where you are going.

It's your time to feel good about yourself

....For all that you've accomplished

....For all the good things you are.

It's your time to be excited about all that tomorrow can hold.

Dare to dream, and always believe in yourself.

To my little Babushka: You will always be my rainbow girl . . . so happy and bright! May you always have passion for life, your school and your work. The little girl asked: "How much do you love me, Mommy?" and the Mommy answered: "I love you deeper than the ocean and wider than the sky!" I am so proud and filled with love for the young woman you have become. May your guardian angel always be by your side.

Love you forever, Mom

I am very proud of you Toni. Best wishes for your future.
